

Services

Short-term emergency accommodation
Domestic violence counselling for women not needing accommodation
A confidential and professional service
Information and referrals for legal, housing and medical assistance
Community education
Outreach services to the Riverland region
Building support networks for those who need to relocate to another area
“Phoenix Network” computers with web cams at Pinnaroo Hospital, Waikerie Community Centre, and Loxcare. Talk to us via computer! Saves travel, time, resources

Aboriginal assistance

Providing a culturally sensitive service and referrals to specialist Aboriginal services if required

Low income support

For those who need of a little extra help to get by, we can provide an emergency food pack, general assistance and referral for budgeting

Access to Housing Association homes:

Assistance to fill out an application form to access a Women's Housing Association home anywhere they have stock in SA

Various Groups for Women

Activities include craft, computing, mosaics and guest speakers

The Phoenix Room:

A space designed specifically to hold groups and for visiting services to utilise. The room has laptop computers and printer, a library of books and DVDs, an electronic whiteboard, a large plasma television and a Wii console

Community Education:

Specialised and designed for each occasion. Tailor made power point presentations by specialist domestic violence staff. Presentations available upon request

Outreach support for women not requiring accommodation:

Appointments may be made in other towns. Current regular visits to Waikerie, Renmark and Loxton

Early Intervention Service:

Connection with a specialist early intervention worker providing home visits and intensive support

Post Separation Support:

Assistance with housing, income, items for a new home, home start kits and a service support network

Men asking for help:

Referral options to two current men's programs in Berri

Kindred Spirit Healing Center:

A new service for women with addictions, women from culturally diverse backgrounds and a specific Aboriginal women's program

Specialist financial planning:

Referral to a volunteer qualified practitioner

Education:

Assistance to commence or re commence education particularly TAFE

Strengthening Relationships:

Providing education and counselling for our clients to raise self esteem and confidence. Also referral points for abusive partners to enable women returning to their relationships a chance of making it happier and safer

Emergency Foodbank Program:

For those tough times when there is not enough food in the home. Volunteers prepare, cook and freeze healthy meals ready for us to give out

Posters:

A4 sized colourful posters relating to the effects of domestic violence designed by us. Enquiries welcome

Website: www.rdvu.com.au

Telephone: 85822100